

HP Frost-Shield

HP Frost-shield is an unique formulation which prevents overnight frost formation on vehicle windshields in cold-climate regions.

The formulation provides a temporary barrier of contact for water, which helps to mitigate the issues of frost accumulation.

Available in user friendly packaging, this non-corrosive formulation is a reliable partner in your journey.